

Kyiv National University of Culture and Arts supports the Sustainable Development Goals

Working Group for the Integration of Sustainable Development Principles

The Working Group was established to support the systematic integration of the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals into the University's educational, research, innovation, creative and artistic, and governance activities.

Head of the Working Group

Yuliia Trach, Vice President for Research and International Affairs

Members of the Working Group

Liudmyla Harashchenko, Head of Accounting and Reporting Department;

Alona Ivashchenko, Head of Higher Education Quality Monitoring and Accreditation Department;

Olena Kravchuk, Head of Academic Affairs Department;

Olha Boiko, Head of Postgraduate and Doctoral Studies Department;

Viktor Volokhonskyi, Head of Technical Facilities and Computer Networks Department;

Roman Kholodenko, Head of Administrative and Facilities Management Department;

Liudmyla Polishchuk, Vice-President for Academic and Methodological Affairs;

Yevheniia Nahorna, President of Student Parliament;

Maryna Komynar, Head of Social and Psychological Centre;

Yaroslav Yatsevskyi, Head of PR Technologies Department.

Main responsibilities of the working group

- developing a conceptual framework for integrating the Sustainable Development Goals into the educational, research, creative and artistic, and governance activities of the University;
- analysing the current state of implementation of sustainable development principles within the structural units of the University;
- preparing proposals for strategic and operational measures aimed at implementing the Sustainable Development Goals in the University's activities;
- supporting the development of interdisciplinary educational and research initiatives related to sustainable development;
- monitoring and coordinating the implementation of measures aimed at achieving the Sustainable Development Goals;
- preparing analytical materials and recommendations for the University leadership concerning the development of the University's sustainability policy.